

Regulations of using free wireless Internet service – HotSpot in the Treblinka Museum. The Nazi German Extermination and Forced Labour Camp (1941-1944)

§ 1

Scope and purpose

1. The Treblinka Museum. The Nazi German Extermination and Forced Labour Camp (1941-1944) (further called the Museum) provides to the visitors of the Museum (further called the Visitors) access to the Wi-Fi network for the purpose of using the Internet connection.
2. The access to the Wi-Fi network is provided free of charge, is non-commercial and is available only in the area of Parking of the Museum.
3. Museum does not provide the technical assistance for the visitors.
4. Due to the safety reasons the Museum does not guarantee the access to all of the network services.
5. Every Visitor is allowed to use the Wi-Fi network, under the condition of applying to the following Regulations.
6. The network traffic is being monitored and archived for the purposes of managing the Museum's statutory responsibilities.

§ 2

Restrictions and exemptions from liability

1. The Museum is not responsible for interruptions in the Internet access, lower bandwidth (especially related to maintenance works or contingencies) and other technical conditions of the network.
2. Accepting the following Regulations is equivalent to accessing the network. The Visitors are allowed to repeatedly connect with the Wi-Fi.
3. The Museum is not responsible for the damage incurred as a result of a usage of Wi-Fi or services available through the Wi-Fi connection as well as damage to IT equipment and software, loss or disclosure of data or other consequences of using the service.
4. The Museum is not responsible for the data collected or transferred by the Visitors.
5. The Museum is not responsible for the Visitors' unauthorized use of items protected by intellectual property laws or other consequences of the non-compliance with the law.

§ 3

Visitor's obligations and liabilities

1. The Wi-Fi network is used at the sole risk and responsibility of the Visitors.
2. The Visitor may use the Wi-Fi under the condition that he/she accepts and complies to the terms and conditions contained in these regulations.
3. Visitors who access the Wi-Fi connection are obliged to:
 - a. comply with the general legislations,
 - b. refrain from uploading and sharing illegal content,
 - c. secure their devices from unauthorized accessed and have an anti-virus software.

4. Visitors are not allowed to take actions which may negatively affect the functioning of the Wi-Fi network and devices of other visitors. Visitors are also not allowed to take any activities violating the law such as:
 - a. gaining unauthorized access to system resources,
 - b. trying to breach the safeguards applied to the wireless connection (changing the IP address, tunneling etc.),
 - c. sharing the Internet connection with other entities via the use of telecommunication devices (e.g. routers),
 - d. sharing and downloading copyrighted material and content that violates the law (racist, fascist, pornographic etc.),
 - e. uploading and sharing content which may violate personal goods of another person,
 - f. conducting any other activities which may be a potential threat to the functioning of the network or breaking the law.
5. The Visitors are solely responsible for the manner in which they use the Wi-Fi connection, including content and the content of data sent with regard to criminal liability for illegal activities.

§ 4

General provisions

1. Ignorance of the those Regulations does not exempt the Visitors from the liability for its violation. Accepting the regulations is equivalent to being acquainted with them.
2. In case of violation of the existing Regulations by the Visitor, the Museum reserves the right to block the Visitors' access to Wi-Fi network.
3. The Museum reserves the right to restrict access to selected content and services on the internet.
4. The Regulations are available on the website www.treblinka-muzeum.eu and at the site of Museum Treblinka: Wólka Okrąglik 115, 08-330 Kosów Lacki.
5. The Museum reserves the right to make changes to these regulations at any time.
6. The Regulations come into force on 01.12.2018.

Comments on the functioning of the service provided should be send to the e-mail address: sekretariat@muzeumtreblinka.eu